Mr. K M So, Executive Director of Urban Group states that, "As a Premier Real Estate and Facility Management Services Company in Hong Kong, Urban Group is committed to contribute to a sustainable world for the betterment of our next generation. We have much pleasure to support this meaningful event to spread the green message through our network of the 42 projects and their customers."

Mr. K M So adds, "In Urban, we always strive to fulfill our corporate social responsibility to promote a green Hong Kong. We established our Green Care Committee in 2002, which since then initiates and implement our 4Rs Environmental Management Strategy of Remind, Replace, Reduce and Recycle in our service network to promote a green lifestyle to our customers. Over the past 3 years, we have received overwhelmingly more than 100 awards in environmental protection and green management from various organizations and government departments, reflecting our tireless efforts in promoting sustainable development."

Earth Hour was initiated by WWF in 2007 in Australia and developed in global activity in 2008. This
