Dr. Edmond Cheng, Managing Director of Urban Group revealed, "We value staff as our most important asset and believe that only healthy staff could help to develop a sustainable future. Thus, we reinforce the ESG commitment by organizing various health and fitness activities, such as Sports Souvenir Campaign, football match, aerial yoga class and Muay Thai training to care employee physical and mental wellbeing, to achieve work-life balance and to increase the sense of belonging of the staff. We remain focused to bring long term positive impact to the community."

The objective of the Sport-Friendly Action campaign is to build healthy workplaces across Hong Kong through encouraging enterprises to offer sport-friendly measures in the workplace, allowing enterprises to fulfil their corporate social responsibilities, build a positive image and create a win-win situation for the organization and its employees.

Dr Edmond Cheng, Managing Director of Urban Group (7th from right), attended the match and supported the Football Team.

Muay Thai Training is a brand new course for staff and their family and friends to enjoy in the spare time.
